The King of Spain has named the Marqueſs de St. Croix to conduct the Infanta to the Frontiers of France, and to receive at the ſame Time Madamoiſelle de Montpenſier. Apartments are fitting up here at the Old Louvre for the young Queen, and the Cardinal du Bois has been taken up for ſome Days with regulating the Ceremonial which is to be obſerved at her Reception. The King will go to Fontainbleau to meet her, and in his Way thither he will lodge one Night at Villeroy, the Country Seat of the Marſhal of that Name. The following Extract of the Advices relating to the Plague received by the Court to the 22d of October, has been communicated to the foreign Miniſters.

Provence. M. de Cailus writes the 7th of October, that there are in thoſe Parts where he commands only ſome little Remains of the Contagion, and that he is perſwaded it has almoſt ceaſed every where. Two or three Perſons have newly fallen ill at Salon, which he imputes to careleſs Management, and has therefore ordered all the Houſes to be perfumed again. A good Progreſs is made in getting in the Vintage, without any ill Accident as to the Contagion. The Troops which inveſted Teraſcon are withdrawn, the Quarantain there being ended. They are alſo withdrawn from Martigues, the Diſtemper having ceaſed there theſe three Months. Aix was to finiſh its Quarantain the 10th of October. Marſeilles has begun Quarantain, and ſo will Toulon forthwith. Several Villages are to do the like. He hopes to be able to adviſe very ſoon, that the whole Province is reſtored to perfect Health. M. Le Bret writes the 3d and 6th of October, that there remain but 43 Perſons under Quarantain, in the Barracks aſſigned to thoſe who have recovered of the Diſtemper at Aix. Toulon and its Neighbourhood go on in an healthful State. Neither the Vintage, nor the Diſmiſſion of the Workmen and Troops which had been confined in the marine Arſenal, have had any bad Effect. Nans, Mazaugues, Roquenaire, St. Zacharie, and Auriol are very well.

Gevaudan. The Duke de Roquelaure in his Letter of the 10th of October ſends an Extract of one from M. de la Devere Brigadier, adviſing that all the Upper Gevaudan is in good Health, except Ville Rouſſet, St. Leger, and Chapginies. M. Blanquet, a Phyſician, had written to him the 4th, that the Inhabitants of la Canourgue who continued in Barracks, were in perfect Health. M. Bailly and le Moyne, Phyſicians at Marvejols, had acquainted him, that the Diſtemper ſeemed to be leaving that Town; that the Number of Perſons recovered from it increaſed; that only three Children had died the 4th and 5th, and that of 350 Perſons who were in the Infirmary they judged but five or ſix to be in Danger. M. de Rothe had written to him the 7th, that the Contagion had broke out again at the Abbey of Chambon; that the Prior was dead after 24 Hours Illneſs, alſo two of the Monks were dead, and one ſick. St. Genaix was in a very bad State, 40 Perſons have died ſince the Diſtemper appeared there, and the Pariſh-Prieſt was ill of it. La Rouſſe had one dead and one ſick the 6th. There is nothing new from Genouillac nor Beriac. Commiſſary Richard writes the 8th, that to the 6th of October the Number of Perſons dead of the Plague at Mende, was 172. That on that Day 80 were ſick, and had Tomours and Sores; and that the two laſt Conſuls there were dead.

Hague, Oct. 31, N. S. The States of this Province of Holland have at laſt reſolved to ſell their Domains, and to employ the Sums ariſing by the Sale towards diſcharging the publick Debts. The Project of leſſening the Cuſtoms and granting a Farm of them, meets ſtill with Difficulties in the Aſſembly of the ſaid States of Holland. The King of Sweden having deſired to reſign the Regiment of Horſe he commands in the Service of the States General in favour of Prince William of Philipſtadt, which Regiment is in the Pay of the States of Holland, it was this Day reſolved in their Aſſembly to nominate the ſaid Prince William Colonel of that Regiment.
